

Stay Informed and Engaged

Q: I'm interested in the Budget process and other important topics. How do I find out what Council is talking about at their meetings and how I can give feedback?

A: All Council and Committee agendas are published in advance of each meeting. You can get agendas sent right to your inbox for each meeting type you are interested in at: <https://collingwood.civicweb.net/Portal/>

All are welcome to attend Council and Committee meetings in-person or online. You can also tune in to all Council and Standing Committee meetings on our YouTube Channel. Visit www.collingwood.ca/council for more details on how to participate.

Q: I'm interested in Town news and engagement opportunities, but where can I find that information?

A: The Town regularly advertises news including public engagement opportunities in the Town Pages of the Collingwood Connection newspaper, on our website and social media channels (Facebook, Instagram and Twitter), on the radio, and new this year on Collingwoodtoday.ca!

You can also subscribe to get news & notices and e-Newsletters on various topics at: www.collingwood.ca/stay-connected.

Public engagement opportunities are posted on <https://engage.collingwood.ca>

Property Owners

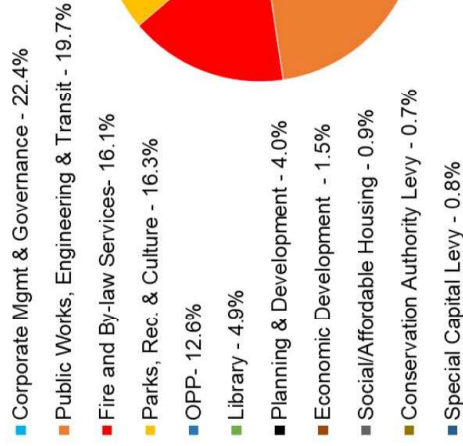

Your 2023 final property tax bill is enclosed. The total amount is payable in two installments due on August 18, 2023 and October 20, 2023.

Your property tax bill includes taxes levied by the Town of Collingwood, the County of Simcoe, and the Provincial education levies.

Tax Dollar Breakdown

Based on a sample home assessed at $350,000, the total taxes payable will be $4,149, broken down as follows:

Town levy: $2,602.69
County levy: $1,010.80
Education levy: $ 535.50

Important Information

Did You Know?

- You can now sign-up to receive your tax bill by email. Visit our website at www.collingwood.ca/vth for further details.
- As a property owner you are responsible for water/waste water charges related to your property, even if you are not the primary occupant. Please contact the Treasury Department for any questions.

Tax Reductions

Any pending tax reductions as a result of an Assessment Appeal, Request for Reconsideration, Special Amended Notice, or Section 357 Reduction will be processed in due course after the final tax bill.

Supplementary Tax Bills

Properties with new construction or renovations in 2023, 2022 or 2021 (not included in the assessment roll for 2023), will be taxed on a Supplementary Tax Notice later this year or in the latter part of 2024, once assessment details have been received from the Municipal Property Assessment Corporation (MPAC).

Change of Address or New Owner

The Town will issue tax bills to the mailing address provided by your solicitor, or to the address indicated on the transfer deed. If a mailing address has not been specified, the tax bill will be sent to the property address by default. If you wish to change your mailing address, you must notify the Treasury Department in writing or by e-mail at taxes@collingwood.ca.

Pre-Authorized Payment Plans

For more information on pre-authorized payment plans for municipal property taxes, please visit our website at www.collingwood.ca/pap or contact the Treasury Department at taxes@collingwood.ca or 705-445-1030 Ext. 3625.

Penalties and Interest

To avoid penalty and interest charges, payment must be received by the Treasury Department on or before the due date. Interest will be added at the rate of 1.25% on the first day of each month for as long as the account is outstanding.
